RE: Education Activity Applications

Dear Ms. Moore,

On April 1, 2019, you were notified of the changes to the Nebraska Real Property Appraiser Act ("Act") regarding qualifying education. Legislative Bill 77 was passed by the Nebraska State Legislature on February 28, 2019, and signed into law by Governor Ricketts on March 6, 2019. The changes to the Act will become effective on September 1, 2019. The Nebraska Real Property Appraiser Board ("Board") reviewed the following qualifying education submissions, and voted to approve them with an effective date of September 1, 2019:

Residential Report Writing and Case Studies	15 hours	1192457.04
	Instructor(s):	Bradford Moore
Specialized Residential Appraisal Topics	20 hours	1192458.04
	Instructor(s):	Bradford Moore
Advanced Residential Applications and Case Studies	15 hours	1192459.04
	Instructor(s):	Bradford Moore
Basic Residential Appraisal Principles	30 hours	1192480.04
	Instructor(s):	Bradford Moore
Basic Residential Appraisal Procedures	30 hours	1192481.04
	Instructor(s):	Bradford Moore
Market Analysis and Highest and Best Use	15 hours	1192482.04
	Instructor(s):	Bradford Moore

All instructors approved to teach the above activities meet the requirements specified in 298 NAC Chapter 6, Section 005.01.

There is no expiration date for approval of qualifying education activities. In accordance with 298 NAC Chapter 6, Section 002.03A, if any of the following changes are made to the content of the activity, it must once again be submitted to the Board for approval through the resubmission process.
